Promotions at the Darien-Woodridge Fire District

Firefighter/Paramedic Seth Dale was sworn in and promoted to Lieutenant at a special meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners on Wednesday, October 15. Seth's career in the fire service began in 1988, as a volunteer. He started with the Darien-Woodridge Fire District in 1991 as a contract paramedic/paid on call firefighter, he was later sworn in full-time in 1998. Seth is a fire service instructor for the University of Illinois and teaches locally as well as across the country. Most of his time away from the district is spent with his 3 children; Brian, Alexandria and Scott, and his wife Kelly at their home in Morris.

Lt. David Lambright was appointed to the position of Deputy Chief and sworn in at the Board of Trustees meeting on Wednesday, October 15. Dave got his start in the fire service in 1976 as a part-time firefighter with the District. Three years later he left for full time employment with the Chicago Fire Department as a paramedic. He later returned full time to the Darien-Woodridge Fire District as a firefighter/paramedic in 1988. Dave was promoted to Lieutenant in 1992. He stays involved in the District and teaches for Southwest United Fire Districts. His daughter, Michelle recently went away to school, attending Illinois State University, and when away from work he enjoys spending time with his wife Jean, traveling, fishing, riding the Harley and taking care of their three dogs.
